

Notice of Relocation of Headquarters

January 9, 2021

ULDAGE Inc.

Today, ULDAGE Inc. (“ULDAGE”), a company for patent pool license management and administration, relocates its Headquarters to near Tokyo Station.

Currently, ULDAGE licenses a package of over 1,000 essential patents which are relating to the current digital television broadcasting standards through a patent pool system. Through this approach, ULDAGE has made substantial contributions for the promotion and market growth of digital television broadcasting system following the full transition of the broadcasting system from “analog broadcasting” to “digital broadcasting” to resolve the underlying patent issues for sales and production of broadcasting receivers and broadcasting services.

This time, the Headquarters is relocated from the Uchisaiwaicho to Marunouchi so that it's quite convenient for patent owners and licensees to give access to the office. Taking this opportunity, our employees as a team will work hard to provide higher quality services for the clients.
